PARISH LIFE

MISSIONARY CO-OP COLUMBAN SISTERS

Sister Carmen Maldonado, SSC from Los Angeles, California, will speak to our parish family during the celebration of the Mass on the following dates: August 2 and 3, for our mission appeal under the 2014 Missionary Co-operation Plan of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. She served in Chile, South America for many years and at present based in Los Angeles.

Sister Carmen will enlighten us to the struggles and needs of the frail, neglected, elderly and forgotten in the remote and distant lands of Chile, China/Hong Kong, Korea, Pakistan, Myanmar (Burma), Philippines and Peru. The Columban Sisters are missionaries in these and other areas around the globe. Your financial support will enable them to continue to spread the Good News (Gospel) and offer love, comfort, care and supportive services to those in need. You can Make a difference in the lives of others for years to come.

PATIENTLY AWAITING JUDGMENT

Matthew, more than any other evangelist, talks about Jesus leaving and returning home. Often Jesus leaves the house because crowds have assembled outside and want to be taught. Today, after having taught and dismissed the crowds, his disciples follow him home, seeking further explanation of what seem to be, at least to us today, pretty straightforward parables. For both Matthew and Mark, when Jesus is in the house with his disciples it signals a special teaching moment, and it should cause us today to perk up our ears. Usually it is Jesus giving commonsense advice about what it will mean to follow him. Today is no different. To follow Jesus means to be ready to encounter the followers of evil, to have to live and work and preach among them. It means patiently awaiting the judgment that can only come from God, the judgment of justly deciding who will be thrown into the flame and who will live to be a brightly shining saint. Let us heed this house-teaching, for it will be the same for us who follow Jesus Christ today.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Charlemagne, crowned Holy Roman Emperor on Christmas Day, 800, had a major interest in shaping the worship life of the church, and began a long period of reform and regulation. We owe many confirmation policies and practices to his rule. A baptized person was required to be confirmed as soon as the bishop's presence made it possible. Priests were expected to do their best in seeing to it that a newly-baptized child received the Eucharist. One twelfth-century ritual insists that if the child is not yet capable of eating or drinking, then the priest might give him or her some of the Precious Blood on a leaf or a finger. Despite the best efforts of the Empire to hold liturgical life together, the rules were not always lived out with great beauty. St. Richard of Chichester of thirteenth-century England, for example, was canonized for his holy life as a bishop. One of the remarkable signs of his sanctity was his willingness to climb down from his horse to confirm "merely baptized" layfolk who crossed his path! This praiseworthy practice points a finger of blame at less zealous bishops, whose casual attitudes revealed a sacrament in need of rescue. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

FROM THE FRONT COVER

SPIRITUAL COMPANIONS, PARTNERS IN SERVICE

Sisters of St. Joseph Associates are women and men, single and married, who embrace the charism of unity and reconciliation and collaborate in the mission of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet.

Associate membership with the Sisters of St. Joseph has a rich history, dating to the time of the congregation's founding in seventeenth-century France when lay persons became spiritual companions and partners in service with the Sisters. In a return to their roots following the Second Vatican Council, the Sisters established Associate programs to share the heart of their mission with others. Today, Associates bring the CSJ spirit to their jobs, parishes, and families.

In a context of prayer, faith, and service, Associates live and work in ways that:

- Heal and reconcile
- Serve all persons without distinction
- Make known through their lives the Gospel they proclaim
- Recognize and defend the dignity of all persons
- Promote justice with a particular concern for the poor

For women and men interested in becoming a CSJ Associate, there is an orientation period of one to two years. Accompanied by a Sister or Associate mentor, candidates learn about the history, mission, and spirituality of the community; attend group meetings; and participate in local, regional, and province celebrations.

If you would like to consider becoming a CSJ Associate, contact any Associate or Sr. Barbara Joseph Wilson (818.341.5203; bjwscj@aol.com).

Lord Jesus, you are our hope when we are in despair. As we gather to hear your word and celebrate the Eucharist, we bring to you our brother and sister immigrants. You know their suffering in the face of unjust wages, working in fear of detention, threatened by separation from spouses and children. We pray to feel and embrace their hopelessness. When we are weak you are strong. What is impossible for us is possible for you. Let us be your instruments of hope, raising our voices to bring change of heart among legislators, judges, and civil authorities that reform be realized and hope restored.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

Road to priesthood involves a rigorous formation process

Seminary formation involves much more than academic study. Prior to ordination, a candidate for priesthood goes through a lengthy evaluation period, including an internship during which he lives in a rectory and works with priests, staff and parishioners. During this time, the candidate is judged as to his suitability to be a priest. No one is ordained unless the staff of St. John's Seminary, including the lay faculty and formation advisers, concludes that the candidate has attained an emotional, psychological and sexual maturity appropriate for his age and for the celibate life of a priest. For more information, please visit <http://www.lavocations.org/> or call the Office for Vocations, (213) 637-7248.

PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

El camino al sacerdocio involucra un proceso de formación riguroso

La formación en el seminario requiere más que un estudio académico. Antes de la ordenación, el candidato al sacerdocio debe pasar por un largo proceso de evaluación, incluyendo un internado durante el cual él vive en la rectoría y trabaja con sacerdotes, empleados y feligreses de la parroquia. Durante este tiempo el candidato es evaluado sobre su compatibilidad para ser sacerdote. Nadie es ordenado sin que el personal del Seminario de St. John, incluyendo el personal laico y los consejeros de formación, concluya que el candidato haya madurado de un modo apropiado a su edad emocionalmente, psicológicamente, y en su sexualidad, y para la vida de celibato de un sacerdote. Para más información por favor visitar la página de Internet <http://www.lavocations.org/> o llamar a la Oficina de Vocaciones, (213) 637-7248.

Señor Jesús, tú eres nuestra esperanza en la desesperación. Durante nuestro encuentro y celebración de la Eucaristía, te presentamos a nuestros hermanos y hermanas inmigrantes. Tú conoces su sufrimiento ante las injusticias que viven, el miedo de ser detenidos y deportados, y la amenaza de la separación de sus familias. Oramos en solidaridad, abrazándolos en su desesperanza porque cuando somos débiles, tú eres fuerte y lo que es imposible para nosotros, es posible para ti. Haznos instrumentos de esperanza, alzando nuestras voces para cambiar los corazones de los legisladores, jueces, y autoridades civiles para que una reforma se haga realidad y la esperanza se renueve.

ESPEREMOS PACIENTEMENTE EL JUICIO

Mateo, más que los otros evangelistas, habla sobre Jesús que sale de su hogar y regresa. Muchas veces sale de su casa porque las multitudes se reúnen afuera y quieren que les enseñe. Hoy, después de haber enseñado y despachado a las multitudes, sus discípulos lo siguen hasta su casa buscando más explicación a lo que parece ser, al menos a nosotros hoy, parábolas muy directas. Tanto para Mateo como para Marcos, cuando Jesús está en la casa con sus discípulos siempre significa un momento especial para enseñar y nos debe hacer prestar atención. Usualmente es Jesús quien nos da consejos sensatos sobre lo que significa ser sus seguidores. Hoy no es diferente: seguir a Cristo significa estar listo a encontrarse con los seguidores del mal, tener que vivir y trabajar y predicar entre ellos, esperando pacientemente ese juicio que sólo puede venir de Dios, el juicio de decidir justamente quién será arrojado a las llamas y quién vivirá para ser un santo ejemplar. Esuchemos esta enseñanza casera para que significa lo mismo para nosotros que seguimos a Cristo hoy. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.
