Ministers of the WORD

"The Lord God has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them."

—Isaiah 50:4

When we gather to celebrate the Mass, God is present in the assembly, the presider, the scriptures, and in the form of the consecrated Eucharistic bread and wine. The first part of the Mass, the Liturgy of the Word, focuses on the scriptures. Lectors are liturgical ministers who bring the Word of God to life for all to hear. Their prayerful proclamation makes the presence of God alive in our midst, stirs hearts, challenges, and comforts.

For more information about the Lector Ministry, contact Nicholas Calzada, Director of Music and Liturgy, in the Parish Center.

PARISH LIFE

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY - TODAY

"Do Good on Earth"

Today, Pope Francis calls every Catholic in the world to celebrate our vocation to be missionary. It's World Mission Sunday!

As Catholics around the world — here at home and in the Missions — gather at the Eucharist around the table of the Lord, we are to pray for the Church's worldwide missionary work. We pray for those awaiting the "Good News" of our Lord's great love for us and for the missionaries who offer the poor and suffering the light of Christ. And we are to offer financial help through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for more than 1,150 dioceses in Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands. Envelopes will be in the carts.

WHY CATHOLIC

Many Catholics have inherited their faith without really knowing why they are Catholic. They have not been exposed to the solid faith formation provided by the "Catechism of the Catholic Church."

"Why Catholic? - Journey through the Catechism" offers us a tool to reference, share, read, pray over, and treasure the rich resources found in the "Catechism of the Catholic Church." Our Catechist team is ready to introduce you to this rich resource for living and knowing our faith. They will be presenting the second book in this four book series "Why Catholic? - Journey through the Catechism;" this second book is titled Celebrate - The Sacraments," it has twelve sessions. We meet at 7:00 p.m., in the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Conference Center room. Contact Bill Sparks (818) 341-6634, ext. 1012 for more information.

EVERYTHING BELONGS TO GOD

The first reading from the prophet Isaiah concerns the Persian King Cyrus, called the Lord's "anointed." Cyrus deserves this title because he ended the Babylonian captivity of the Jews. However, Isaiah reminds us that it was God who gave Cyrus his power. He may be a great king, but "I am the LORD and there is no other," says God (Isaiah 45:5). Today's Gospel is also concerned with worldly power. In the passage from Matthew, the Pharisees try to trick Jesus into speaking against the emperor. His famous answer is the perfect reply. Like the kings of old, Caesar can be given the respect due his position, but everything belongs to God. In the second reading, Paul gives thanks for all who are faithful to Jesus Christ and his gospel. He, too, reminds us that our call and the power to be faithful come from God.

A PRAYER FOR PRIESTLY VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus,
You called chosen men
To be with you, to preach the
Good news of salvation and to
Have authority over the powers
Of darkness. Send your Holy Spirit
Upon the men you have chosen
For the priestly ministry. May they
Answer your call and follow you
With generous hearts.
Amen

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

To know, follow the school's security measures sets an example to your kids

"Back-to-school does not have to mean back-to-worrying. Though safety inside school is ultimately the responsibility of the principal and school staff, parents can take a few basic steps to ensure a safe school experience."

Know and follow school security and safety measures. These might include signing in when visiting the school, being escorted when walking through the building, or wearing a visitor pass. Following these procedures also sets a great example for your kids. PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

Conocer, seguir medidas de seguridad de la escuela es ejemplo para sus hijos

“El regreso a la escuela no tiene que significar regreso a la preocupación. Aunque la seguridad adentro de la escuela es finalmente la responsabilidad del director y del personal de la escuela, los padres de familia pueden tomar unos pocos pasos básicos para asegurar una experiencia escolar segura”. Conozca y siga las medidas de seguridad de la escuela. Esto puede incluir registrarse a la entrada al visitar la escuela, ser acompañados cuando se camine por el edificio, o usar un pase de visitante. Seguir estos procedimientos es un gran ejemplo para sus hijos. Para más información, por favor visite <http://www.scholastic.com/parents/resources/article/parent-teacher-partnerships/6-rules-school-safety>

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 2006, en la plaza de Taos se erigió una estatua de bronce que conmemora al “cura de Taos”, Antonio José Martínez, un sacerdote recordado como controversial ante varios gobiernos por defender a su pueblo. Él fue sacerdote en Taos, Nuevo México cuando era territorio español, luego mexicano y finalmente cuando pasa a manos de EE. UU. Durante la época española y mexicana Antonio estableció escuelas para niños y niñas y fundó un seminario para preparar un clero nativo. En 1830 empezó a imprimir libros y estableció el primer periódico Nuevo Mexicano. De esta manera estableció Taos como un centro de educación. En 1851 llegaron los representantes del gobierno estadounidense con la intención de “americanizar” a los nuevos mexicanos prohibiéndoles sus tradiciones declarando que eran ignorantes y supersticiosas. Antonio José contradijo este movimiento convirtiendo su seminario en una escuela de leyes. Decía que el gobierno de EE. UU es un burro que debe ser montado por abogados. Muchos se opusieron a su obra pero él continuó luchando por su pueblo hasta su muerte en 1867. Su tumba lo declara: “La honra de su país”. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Giz, OFM, © J. S. Paluch Co.

Oramos por aquellos que esperan “la Buena Nueva” del gran amor que nuestro Señor tiene por nosotros y por los misioneros que ofrecen la luz de Cristo a los pobres y a los oprimidos. También hemos de ofrecer ayuda económica a través de la Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe, la cual llega a más de 1,150 diócesis en Asia, África, América Latina y las Islas del Pacífico.

Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.

BULLETIN AND MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS

The deadline (strictly observed) for submission of Bulletin and Mass announcements is the previous Monday at noon.
