LOVE SHOWN IN ACTION

Do you receive the word of God with joy as the Thessalonians did? Their faith showed in their actions. They became models for other believers. The first reading tells us to put our faith into action. This passage is part of a long list of ordinances God commanded the Israelites to observe. God will judge us by how we treat our neighbors. God will hear the cries of any whom we neglect or mistreat and will come to their defense. In today's Gospel the Pharisees put the question of God's law to Jesus. "Which commandment of the law is the greatest?" (Matthew 22:36) How could he possibly choose from all the detailed commandments the Jews observed? He was sure to offend somebody by his answer! Of course, Jesus went right to the heart of the matter. Love is the greatest commandment—love of God and love of neighbor. Everything else is based on this. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Sadly, one of the most difficult reforms of the Second Vatican Council for the Church to embrace has been one of the most thorough and beautiful: the sacrament of penance. Because it is individual and private, it has been difficult for the changes to take root. Sometimes a priest may be grounded in the earlier form, and at other times the penitent may resist the priest's attempt to blend in the proper texts and rituals. Perhaps because the new form is almost identical in structure to the old, it has been difficult to insititute. It may also be true that with the liturgy in English now, it is far more clear that the Eucharist, too, is a "sacrament of reconciliation." It is certainly true that there are different skills and gifts in ministry, and experienced penitents know that not all priests are equally at ease in this sacramental encounter. Sometimes a difficult experience can drive people away from a liturgy that is spiritually rich and rewarding. Yet we know that one bad meal seldom puts people off restaurants forever: the dinner gong tends to dispel bad memories, and so we try again. Individual confession and absolution is for us both treasure and tradition. If you haven't been for a while, consider coming back to praise God for this gift of mercy.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDRENTalk with your children about safety at school

“Back-to-school does not have to mean back-to-worrying. Though safety inside school is ultimately the responsibility of the principal and school staff, parents can take a few basic steps to ensure a safe school experience.”

Talk with your child about safety. Be specific. Talk about instinct and paying attention to funny feelings of fear. Explain what to do if she doesn't feel safe (find a teacher, call 911, etc.). Make sure she knows how to contact you or a trusted neighbor who is likely to be at home. FROM THE FRONT COVER

Mass Coordinators Serve the Body of Christ

When he was about to celebrate with his disciples the Passover meal in which he instituted the sacrifice of his Body and Blood, Our Lord instructed that a large, furnished upper room be prepared (Lk 22:12). In a similar way our worship space is arranged and preparations made for the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, the "source and summit" of our faith. The Mass Coordinators at our seven weekend Masses assure that all the items needed for the Mass are in place and that the appropriate ministers are present and are ready to serve. The Coordinators have responsibilities before, during, and after the Mass.

Mass Coordinators receive special training for their ministry, under the direction of Nick Calzada, Director of Music and Liturgy. Before serving as Mass Coordinator, each has gained experience as a Eucharistic minister or lector and has demonstrated dependability, organizational skills, flexibility, and common sense. Mass Coordinators have good communication and problem-solving skills and foster a sense of calm and reverence among all with whom they serve.

Saturday

5:30 p.m.: Barbara Lovejoy, Onie Mora

Sunday

7:30 a.m.: Sophia Camejo, Janie Pulte

9:30: Carmen Dashiell, Sandra Gonzalez, Tham Huynh, Sarita White

11:30: Julie Chaves, Miguel Rosel, Cristina Thomas

1:30 p.m.: Jesus Escobar

5:30: Dinh Phan

7:30: Lucy San Martin

We are grateful to these members of our parish family for their devotion to the celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

Platiqué con sus hijos sobre la seguridad en la escuela

“El regreso a la escuela no tiene que significar regreso a la preocupación. Aunque la seguridad adentro de la escuela es finalmente la responsabilidad del director y del personal de la escuela, los padres de familia pueden tomar unos pocos pasos básicos para asegurar una experiencia escolar segura”.

Platiqué con su hijo/a sobre la seguridad. Sea específico. Platiqué sobre el instinto y poner atención a los sentimientos raros de miedo. Explique qué hacer si él/ella no se siente seguro/a (busque a un maestro, llame al 911, etc.). Asegúrese que él/ella sepa como contactar a sus padres o a un vecino de confianza que con seguridad vaya a estar en casa. PARISH REGISTRATION

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.
