VOICES FOR THE POOR

Pope Paul VI and Salvadoran Archbishop Oscar Romero will be canonized by Pope Francis today (October 14) at the Vatican. That they will be declared saints together is significant because they were close to each other in life. Romero, Archbishop of San Salvador, spoke out on behalf of victims of violence, torture, and poverty at the hands of the repressive Salvadoran government. He was shot and killed while saying Mass in a hospital chapel on March 24, 1980. Paul VI, elected pope in 1963 following the death of Pope John XXIII, brought the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965) to a conclusion and led the implementation of the Council's vision. The first pope to travel to Latin America, Paul VI presided over the Conference of Latin American Bishops meeting in Medellín, Colombia (1968). A watershed event, that assembly declared the church's "preferential option for the poor."

For more about Archbishop Romero and Pope Paul VI, see page 5.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

The Importance of Emotional Boundaries

We discuss the importance of physical boundaries quite a bit, teaching children to understand privacy and the difference between good touches and bad touches. But emotional boundaries are just as important, if not more so, because abuse victims are often manipulated into trusting and believing their abusers. Predators can violate emotional boundaries fairly easily, worming their way into a child's life and creating a false relationship. Parents should talk to their children about appropriate boundaries for their emotional relationships — with teachers, the parents of their friends, and other adults in their lives. Children do not always have the emotional maturity to set their own boundaries, so parents should be on the lookout for anything that seems inappropriate or "off" about the relationships their children form with other adults. To learn more about emotional boundaries and how to maintain them, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

SJW MEMORIAL SOCIETY

St. Joseph the Worker Memorial Society is intended as a meaningful and beautiful way for persons to remember their beloved deceased or to express their condolences to friends who have lost a loved one. Persons enrolled in the Memorial Society will share in the spiritual benefits of special Masses and prayers offered throughout the year, every year. A Mass is offered for those enrolled every first Saturday of the month at our 8:30 a.m. Mass. The enrollment list is kept in the Parish Center and is accessible during office hours. Each memorial is presented in a handsome leatherette folder, containing an enrollment card where the name of the person remembered is inscribed, along with the person who enrolled the deceased. The leatherette folder with personalized enrollment card is particularly suitable on the occasion of a death, to bring to a viewing or funeral, or to send as an anniversary remembrance. Call the Parish Center to make arrangements.

FROM THE FRONT COVER

A POPE AND A BISHOP BECOME SAINTS

Today (October 14) Archbishop Oscar Romero (1917-1980) and Pope Paul VI (1897-1978) will be elevated to sainthood by Pope Francis at the Vatican.

Pope of Dialogue

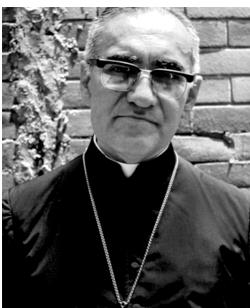

Giovanni Batista Montini, archbishop of Milan, was elected pope in the conclave of June 1963. Succeeding Pope John XXIII, who convened the Second Vatican Council in 1962, Pope Paul VI presided over the final sessions of the council and approved a series of extraordinary documents that defined a new understanding of the church in the modern world. He steered the church through a period of significant internal change, working to bring together progressive and conservative positions in the church.

Paul VI wanted a church that was in dialogue with the modern world. He addressed the theme of dialogue in his encyclical Ecclesiam Suam (His Church; 1964). In his social teaching, Paul VI challenged the dominant structures of the global economy to identify with the hopes and struggles of the poor. His encyclical Populorum Progressio (On the Development of Peoples; 1967) was the first church document to deal with the problems of the Third World, particularly the gap between the rich and the poor. An often quoted line from the encyclical is "Development is the new name for peace."

Martyr for Justice

When Oscar Arnulfo Romero Galdámez became archbishop of San Salvador in 1977, little in his background suggested that he was one to challenge the status quo. Few could have predicted that within three years he would become a voice for the voiceless and champion for justice. Romero was archbishop during the bloody and tension-filled time leading up to El Salvador's 1979-1992 civil war. His weekly sermons, broadcast by radio throughout the country, featured an inventory of the week's violations of human rights. He spoke out against the violence and killing of countless people, including peasants, labor leaders, and priests, at the hands of death squads.

The archbishop was denounced by many of his fellow bishops, despised by the rich and powerful, and a subject of distrust in Rome. He called on the soldiers to obey God's commandments and lay down their guns so as not to kill their own people. On March 24, 1980, as he was saying Mass in the chapel of the Carmelite sisters' cancer hospital where he lived, a single rifle shot was fired from the rear of the chapel. Romero was struck in the heart and died within minutes.

Other New Saints

In addition to Pope Paul VI and Archbishop Romero, five other Blessed will also be canonized today. They are Fr. Francesco Spinelli of Italy, diocesan priest and founder of the Sisters Adorers of the Blessed Sacrament; Fr. Vincenzo Romano, a diocesan priest who worked with the poor of Naples, Italy; Mother Catherine Kasper, the German founder of the religious congregation, the Poor Handmaids of Jesus Christ; Nazaria Ignacia de Santa Teresa de Jesús, the Spanish founder of the Congregation of the Missionary Crusaders of the Church, who spent most of her mission in Bolivia; and Nunzio Sulprizio, a young Italian layperson, poor, orphaned, and disabled at an early age, who worked to relieve the suffering of hospital patients and the poor.

PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

La importancia de los límites emocionales

Discutimos la importancia de los límites físicos un poco, enseñando a los niños a comprender la privacidad y la diferencia entre las buenas formas de ser tocados y las malas maneras de ser tocados. Pero los límites emocionales son igual de importantes, si no más, porque las víctimas de abuso a menudo son manipuladas para confiar y creer en sus abusadores. Los depredadores pueden violar los límites emocionales con bastante facilidad, abriéndose camino en la vida de un niño y creando una relación falsa. Los padres de familia deben hablar con sus hijos sobre los límites apropiados con sus relaciones emocionales, con los maestros, los padres de sus amigos y otros adultos en sus vidas. Los niños no siempre tienen la madurez emocional para establecer sus propios límites, por lo que los padres de familia deben estar atentos a cualquier cosa que parezca inapropiada o "desagradable" sobre las relaciones que sus hijos forman con otros adultos. Para aprender más sobre los límites emocionales y cómo mantenerlos, envíe un correo electrónico a jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY

St. Joseph the Worker is a special place, where we are touched daily by God's presence among us. Rooted in the legacy of our founding parishioners, we have become the dynamic faith community we cherish today. A gift to the future of our parish will support its spiritual richness and many good works for generations to come.

Please remember St. Joseph the Worker in your will or trust. To learn more about planned giving opportunities that can benefit St. Joseph the Worker, please contact the Parish Center or Kimberly Jetton, Planned Giving Manager, Archdiocese of Los Angeles; (213) 637-7504; plannedgiving@la-archdiocese.org.

To make a gift: Our correct legal title is: The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Los Angeles, A Corporation Sole, for the benefit of St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church

PARISH REGISTRATION

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.

BULLETIN AND MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS

The deadline (strictly observed) for submission of Bulletin and Mass announcements is the previous Monday at noon. Deliver a copy of the bulletin or Mass announcement to the Parish Center or email it to Angela Escobar: angela_escobar4@hotmail.com. To submit a photo to accompany the bulletin text, send a digital file (jpeg or TIF), color or black/white, 300 dpi. See the front cover for the parish mailing address and fax number. For more information please contact Angela Escobar, (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003.
