Salt & Light

What must the people have thought when Jesus called them "the salt of the earth" and "the light of the world"? We can ask the same question today because Jesus also meant those words for us. As salt gives flavor, we are to contribute to enhancing the quality of others' lives. As light illuminates, we are to let the light of Christ shine through us wherever we are, in whatever we do.

This year's theme "Our Story is Alive" reminds us that our gifts to Together in Mission are an active demonstration of our faith and love for those in our Archdiocese who need our support. Please make a pledge with the information that was mailed to your home, a pledge card found with the parish, or online at ourmissionla.org/give.

GOD'S CALL

The person who has been "saved," who has "heard the good news of salvation," still lives in an unsaved world, a world sadly oblivious to the presence of God. Today's readings outline how the disciple is present in the world.

The outline begins with Isaiah: "Share your bread . . . shelter the oppressed . . . clothe the naked" (Isaiah 58:7). Those who hear the word of salvation are not insensitive to the urgent needs of others. Then Paul reminds his flock that he brought Christ to them not in eloquence or wisdom, but by being with them in the "weakness and fear" of their daily lives (1 Corinthians 2:3). Finally, Jesus tells his disciples to go out into the gloom and darkness of the streets of the world and let God's light shine through their good deeds.

We disciples don't save the world. To the extent, however, that we have heard the word of God and been awakened to God's presence, we may spread that word and bring that presence to others.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The story of Job seems at first hearing to be an extension of February's gloom into the liturgy. The monumental suffering of a good man is so horrific that the laments of the front page of modern newspapers barely measure up. The whole story is not long to tell, but its resolution is of great comfort. We can trace in its plot the stirrings of a belief in an afterlife, and in God's great power to right every wrong and raise human beings from suffering.

In the Gospel, we see the fulfillment of these longings in the hand of Jesus, grasping an ill woman by the hand and raising her up to vibrant life. Peter's mother-in-law becomes her best self, attentive to her guests, providing hospitality, the warmth of her laughter, the delights of her kitchen. Last week, at Candlemas, candles were blessed, including baptismal candles for some not yet born. Today is a day to check the fragile flame of your own baptismal candle. Against February's customary lethargy, its background whines and ailments, the liturgy summons us to life, grasps us by the hand, and sends us to serve in Christ's name.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

Megan’s Law protects parents and children

In the state of California, anyone who has engaged in sexual misconduct with a child under the age of 16 is not allowed to work directly with minors, or to be unaccompanied with minors. This includes volunteer and employee positions. This law helps to create safe environments for our children in our schools and churches. You can access the names and addresses of registered sex offenders on the Megan’s Law website. To learn more, visit <http://protect.la-archdiocese.org>.

EDUCATION/FAITH FORMATION

St. Joseph the Worker School

Creating Tomorrow's Leaders Through Faith, Academics, and Service for Over 60 Years!

January 21, 2020

Dear St. Joseph the Worker School Families,

I have had the opportunity as the principal of St. Joseph the Worker School to be a part of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles Delegation to Northern Ireland. Along with members of 11 other Catholic schools, the Department of Catholic Schools, and Loyola Marymount University, we will be travelling to Northern Ireland this March on a professional development tour. We will be partnering with local Catholic schools in the area and Queens University to learn more about how successful schools operate in Northern Ireland, specifically in the area of inclusions, shared resources, and Catholic identity.

Our group has been meeting since fall of 2019 in preparation for the trip. In addition to this trip, we have made a commitment to create innovative and impactful implementation plans in our schools based on our findings and experiences.

This is such a wonderful opportunity for our school community and we want you all to be a part of the experience! Our Northern Ireland Delegation currently has a website and an Instagram page. We will be highlighting the members of our team, showing our process, and of course, sharing our time and experience in Northern Ireland!

Please follow us on Instagram @ADLA_in_n_ireland

PARISH LIFE

THE UNIVERSITY SERIES® AT OUR LADY OF GRACE

March 26 · 7:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. By Padre Benjamin Aguilar, O.Carm.
Is the Parable of the 'The Prodigal Son' Really about Forgiveness?
 When most people read or hear the parable of the "Prodigal Son," they believe they are receiving the message of the importance of forgiveness. Even though forgiveness is an essential (some may even argue quintessential) Christian dynamic, current New Testament scholarship demonstrates quite profoundly that the parable of "the Lost Son" is more about who counts ...and who is doing the counting.

March 30 · 7:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. By Fr. Tracy O'Sullivan
What Should We Really Pray For?

How do we pray to a God whose love for us cannot be more intense? How do we pray to a God whose singular intention is our happiness for all eternity? How do we pray to a God who knows more about us than we do? Struggling with these questions leads us to a journey to embrace deep personal prayer as the real gift that awaits us. Fr. Tracy will answer all these questions and more with a preview of his new book, "What Should We Really Pray For?" (23rd Publishers, Summer 2020).

April 2 · 7:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. By Padre Benjamin Aguilar, O.Carm.

Prayer: One is not Enough.

Prayer is a communal encounter with God who presides, guides, and abides. Come learn about the many styles of prayer: liturgical, contemplative, and devotional, as Padre Benjamin offers answers to two questions: Is prayer just 'a conversation between friends'? (St. Teresa of Jesus), and just what is the difference between worshipping and adoring God?

EL LLAMADO DE DIOS

La persona que ha sido “salvada” y que ha “oído la buena noticia de salvación” sigue viviendo en un mundo que no ha sido salvado, un mundo tristemente inconsciente de la presencia de Dios. Las lecturas de hoy bosquejan cómo el discípulo se hace presente al mundo. Ese perfil se inicia con Isaías: “Comparte tu pan con el hambriento. . . abre tu casa al pobre sin techo. . . viste al desnudo” (Isaías 58:7). Los que escuchan la palabra de salvación no son insensibles a las urgentes necesidades de los demás. Pablo le recuerda a su rebaño que él le trajo a Cristo no con elocuencia o sabiduría, sino que permaneció con ellos “débil y temblando de miedo” en medio de su trabajo diario (1 Corintios 2:3). Finalmente, Jesús dice a sus discípulos que vayan a la desesperanza y oscuridad de las calles del mundo y dejen que la luz de Dios brille a través de sus obras buenas. Los discípulos no salvan el mundo. Sin embargo, si nosotros hemos escuchado la Palabra de Dios y hemos empezado a discernir su presencia, podemos proclamar esa Palabra y traer esa presencia a los demás. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY

St. Joseph the Worker is a special place, where we are touched daily by God's presence among us. Rooted in the legacy of our founding parishioners, we have become the dynamic faith community we cherish today. A gift to the future of our parish will support its spiritual richness and many good works for generations to come.

Please remember St. Joseph the Worker in your will or trust. To learn more about planned giving opportunities that can benefit St. Joseph the Worker, please contact the Parish Center or Kimberly Jetton, Planned Giving Manager, Archdiocese of Los Angeles; (213) 637-7504; plannedgiving@la-archdiocese.org.

To make a gift: Our correct legal title is: The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Los Angeles, A Corporation Sole, for the benefit of St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church

PARISH REGISTRATION

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.

BULLETIN AND MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS

The deadline (strictly observed) for submission of Bulletin and Mass announcements is the previous Monday at noon. Deliver a copy of the bulletin or Mass announcement to the Parish Center or email it to Angela Escobar: angela_escobar4@hotmail.com. To submit a photo to accompany the bulletin text, send a digital file (jpeg or TIF), color or black/white, 300 dpi. See the front cover for the parish mailing address and fax number. For more information please contact Angela Escobar, (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003.
