As we hear in this Sunday Gospel, standing on the shore of the Lake of Genesaret, Jesus watched as the fishermen disembarked their boats and washed their nets after a night of spent without catching any fish. Getting into Simon's boat, Jesus asked to go out again and lower the nets into deep water. Simon did and had to call for help to avoid sinking under the weight of the catch of fish. Simon was astonished, and so were his partners, James and John. Jesus said, "Don't be afraid ... [and] they left everything and followed him." (Lk 5:10-11)

Today as well, although sinners as Simon was, we need to follow Jesus without fear of the treacherous waters of everyday life.

TOGETHER IN MISSION 2025: GIFTS OF THE HEART ANNUAL APPEAL

Today, Archbishop José H. Gómez invites all Catholics to join the Annual "Gifts from the Heart" Campaign of Together in Mission 2025. This year's theme, "Gifts from the Heart," reminds us that our generosity is a profound expression of faith and love, reaching those in need throughout our Archdiocese. Our parish aims to support our brothers and sisters in the parishes and schools who depend on Together in Mission to continue their vital ministries. In 2024, we achieved a high percentage of our goal in cash, and with your help, we can make an even greater impact in 2025. You can make your pledge today using information sent by mail, a parish pledge card, or online at www.TIMGIVE.org. Your donation is truly a gift from the heart, sustaining hope and faith in our community. Thank you for your commitment!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

My parents' garage is full of old junk that no longer serves any purpose in my life. As a 46-year-old man, I admit that's pretty lame. Either due to my sentimentality or laziness (or both, probably), I just couldn't get myself to throw things away. But a few days ago, by a grace of God, I thought: "I'll hire my nephew Ryan to throw a bunch of my stuff away — he couldn't care less about my junk!" And you know what? It worked. In one day, Ryan chucked the majority of his uncle's useless stuff. I feel so free, ready for a new junk-free chapter in my life.

This kind of thing happens in this Sunday's Gospel. Peter's net is full of useless junk. Luke says he and the others are cleaning their nets after catching no fish. Imagine them dejectedly and impatiently removing a nasty assortment of seaweed, sticks and muck. The Lord teaches and calls them once their nets are cleared out. So it goes with us. Spiritual life begins by removing that which is useless and merely taking up space in our hearts, minds and lives. Then Jesus teaches and acts in a marvelous way in our lives, too.

So what's junking up your net? What habits, attachments, possessions, preoccupations? If, like me, you struggle to clean your nets by yourself, ask the Lord to send you someone like my nephew to be your "Peter" and help you clean it out. It is well worth it. Once Peter's net is clean, he is free to make a wonderful catch.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

We invite you to be in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament every Friday from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. in the church

SJW MEMORIAL SOCIETY

St. Joseph the Worker Memorial Society is intended as a meaningful and beautiful way for persons to remember their beloved deceased or to express their condolences to friends who have lost a loved one. Persons enrolled in the Memorial Society will share in the spiritual benefits of special Masses and prayers offered throughout the year, every year. A Mass is offered for those enrolled every first Saturday of the month at our 8:30 a.m. Mass. The enrollment list is kept in the Parish Center and is accessible during office hours. Each memorial is presented in a handsome leatherette folder, containing an enrollment card where the name of the person remembered is inscribed, along with the person who enrolled the deceased. The leatherette folder with personalized enrollment card is particularly suitable on the occasion of a death, to bring to a viewing or funeral, or to send as an anniversary remembrance. Call the Parish Center to make arrangements.

MASS INTENTIONS

We are accepting Mass Intention Requests for February and March. You may download and print the Mass Intention Request form from our website or get one at the Parish Center. Complete the form and deliver or mail it to the Parish Center with your $10 per Mass donation. A check payable to St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church is preferred. Cash is accepted in person (exact amount, please). Due to the popularity of Mass Intentions, only one form per family per quarter, with maximum 4 intentions and no duplicate names, to ensure each family has a better opportunity to hear their loved one's name announced at their desired mass. We do not accept phone requests.

CONTRIBUTION STATEMENT

If you would like a contribution statement for the year 2024, please call the Parish Center (818) 341-6634. We will be happy to send one to you.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

Books can help children understand difficult situations

All children are bound to experience difficult events as they grow up. When complex situations arise before children develop the ability to fully articulate their emotions, books can help them feel more at ease with feelings of anger, frustration, and sadness. While a book can't make everything better, stories can often help provide understanding and comfort. The picture book "Wildfire!" gives children a look at forest fires, firefighting and protecting natural spaces. The book can be found at <https://a.co/d/7LyZzsX>.

PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

Los libros pueden ayudar a los niños a entender situaciones difíciles

Es probable que los niños pasen por eventos difíciles durante su desarrollo. Cuando surgen situaciones complejas antes de que los niños desarrollen la capacidad de articular plenamente sus emociones, los libros pueden ayudarles a sentirse más tranquilos con los sentimientos de ira, frustración y tristeza. Aunque un libro no puede hacer que todo sea mejor, los cuentos pueden proporcionar entendimiento y consuelo durante situaciones difíciles. El libro ilustrado "Wildfire!" ofrece a los niños una mirada a los incendios forestales, la lucha contra el fuego y la protección de los espacios naturales. Se puede encontrar el libro en <https://a.co/d/7LyZzsX>.

St. Joseph the Worker is a special place, where we are touched daily by God's presence among us. Rooted in the legacy of our founding parishioners, we have become the dynamic faith community we cherish today. A gift to the future of our parish will support its spiritual richness and many good works for generations to come.

Please remember St. Joseph the Worker in your will or trust. PARISH REGISTRATION

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.
