PARISH LIFE

GIVING OF ONESELF

Scientists have recently begun to discuss the idea that the primary force behind all life in the universe is selfgift. This is how everything from galaxies to human babies are born and sustained. If we read the opening of today's passage from Isaiah correctly, we see that he anticipated twentieth-century scientists by over twenty five hundred years. Using the self-giving example of the rain and snow clouds that water the earth that then yields fruit, which in turn is given over to nourish creatures, Isaiah leads us to understand that the primary force behind all life is the word of God. The ultimate giving of that word, we believe, was Jesus Christ, who, in the greatest revelation of divine love, gave of himself on the cross. To what degree are we in touch with that self-giving God in whose image we are made? To what extent do we really follow the self-giving example of Christ into whose death and resurrection we were baptized, whose ultimate self-gift we celebrate every week in the Eucharist? With God's help, our lives can be like Isaiah's rain and snow, and we will not return to heaven until we have done our part to make the earth fruitful. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

With the Reformation, some early Protestants, including the "Anabaptists," rejected infant baptism in favor of "believer's baptism." Against Orthodox and Catholic practice, which favored baptism as soon as possible for a newborn, these movements desired that the candidate for baptism speak for him- or herself at a mature age, not through godparents as an infant. Today, it is clear that they were rejecting a very ancient practice (even as early as the second century) of baptizing children of all ages. Children came first in ancient baptismal ceremonies, and someone would speak for them. Gregory of Nazianzen wanted to delay the baptism of children to three years of age, since at that age they could retain at least some impression of the liturgy. He made an exception for the very ill, who were to be baptized ahead of the annual Easter baptism. That means that infants and children were normally baptized together with adults, and that everyone received confirmation and the Eucharist. The tone of the early bishops' writings is generous and compassionate, and seeks to build up the Eucharistic assembly by widely celebrating the gift of the Holy Spirit. If a priest celebrated baptism, then the gift of the Spirit was postponed for the bishop, but with no regard for the person's age. So, until the fifth century, confirmation was for infants, too.—Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

FROM THE FRONT COVER

COMMUNITY COUNCILS PROMOTE PARISH MISSION

"... Out of our diversity we create unity through respect for every person, common celebrations, sacramental worship, Christian education of all ages, and outreach programs" (Parish Mission Statement).

The St. Joseph the Worker community is home to people from around the world. As our mission statement says, "Out of this diversity we create unity." The Hispanic, Vietnamese, and Filipino community councils (pictured on the front cover) play an important role in fulfilling this aspect of our parish mission.

Leadership: The councils analyze and prioritize the needs of their respective communities, set goals, and develop strategies for meeting them. A representative of each council serves on the Pastoral Council.

Parish Financial Support: Among the principal goals of the various communities is to support the parish financially. Toward this end, the council leadership coordinates fundraising projects (dances, dinners, food sales, raffles, etc.). The proceeds from these efforts enable the communities to make substantial donations to the parish every year.

Faith: Among the joys we experience at St. Joseph the Worker is the beauty of our common celebrations. The community councils work with the pastoral staff to create liturgies that bring to life a variety of worship traditions.

Outreach: The success of the parish Cultural Outreach Program owes much to the work of the community councils. They have organized support for a youth education program in Vietnam; a rehabilitation center in Mexicali; home construction in the Philippines; educational opportunity for children of war-torn Uganda; an elementary/secondary school in Tacna, Peru; a home for poor and displaced children of Sri Lanka; and Coptic Orphans, an organization that provides food, shelter, and educational opportunity for fatherless children in Egypt.

Service: The councils collaborate with parish leadership to coordinate each community's participation in major parish events, such as the annual Festival, the major parish fundraiser.

Information: The current council chairs are Lien Le, Vietnamese Council; Miguel Rios, Hispanic Council; Tessie Millado, Filipino Council. Each may be contacted through the Parish Center.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

Gather the most information possible about your children's whereabouts

The core best practice rule for child safety is to have as much information as possible and replace blind trust with knowledge and healthy suspicion. That means asking questions: "Where are you going? What will you do while you are there? Who will be with you? When will you return? Which adults will be present?" Then evaluate the situation and determine if it is safe for your child to participate. And, don't be afraid to say "No." When you and your children think safety, summer is filled with fun opportunities for children to enjoy. For a copy of "Summer Safety Tips can help prevent Sexual Abuse" contact: Brenda Melendez, Office of Safeguard the Children: bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org

PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

Reúna la mayor información posible sobre el paradero de sus hijos

La mejor práctica, la mejor regla para la seguridad de sus hijos es tener la mayor información posible y reemplazar una confianza ciega con una sospecha saludable y bien informada. Esto requiere hacer preguntas como: ¿A dónde vas? ¿Qué vas a hacer mientras estés en ese lugar? ¿A qué hora vas a regresar? ¿Qué adultos van a estar presentes? Cuando tenga esta información evalúe la situación y determine si es seguro que su hijo/a participe o no en esa actividad. Y no tenga miedo de decir "NO". Cuando usted y su hijo/a piensan en la seguridad el verano de ellos estará lleno de diversión y oportunidades para que los niños se diviertan. RENUNCIAR A SÍ MISMO

Los científicos recientemente empezaron a debatir el hecho de que la fuerza primordial detrás de toda vida en el universo es la entrega de sí. Eso es lo que hace nacer y lo que sostiene a todo, desde galaxias a bebés. Si leemos la apertura del pasaje de Isaías de hoy correctamente, escuchamos que él se adelantó a los científicos por unos 2500 años. Usando el ejemplo de la lluvia y la nieve que dan su agua a la tierra para que pueda dar fruto, que a su vez da su fruto para alimentar las criaturas, Isaías nos lleva a entender que la fuerza primaria detrás de toda la vida, es la palabra de Dios. El mejor ejemplo de esa entrega de sí, creemos que fue Jesucristo, quien, en la revelación más grande del amor divino, se entregó en la cruz. ¿Hasta qué punto estamos en contacto con Dios que se entrega y en cuya imagen hemos sido creados? ¿Hasta qué punto seguimos el ejemplo de entrega de Cristo en cuya muerte y resurrección fuimos bautizados; cuya entrega suprema celebramos cada semana en la Eucaristía? Es de esperarse que nuestra vida sea como la lluvia y la nieve para Isaías, y que no volveremos al cielo hasta que hayamos contribuido a hacer la tierra más fértil.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En el año 2001, Carlos Manuel Rodríguez Santiago se convirtió en el primer laico caribeño beatificado por la Iglesia. Su vida fue ejemplar en la caridad y en el amor a la liturgia, pues promovió la participación de los fieles de una manera activa, mucho antes de que el Concilio Vaticano II así lo pidiera. En 1963 una colitis rectal muy severa lo llevó a los brazos de Cristo resucitado, a la edad de 44 años. Carlitos, como muchos lo llaman, trabajó en la Universidad de Puerto Rico y fundó un grupo apostólico laical en el Centro Católico de dicha universidad. Allí pudo obrar por el desarrollo del humanismo cristiano, la participación activa de los laicos en la liturgia de la Iglesia y por la renovación de la Vigilia Pascual. Solía decir que los cristianos "vivimos para esa noche" como cumbre y centro de nuestra fe. Carlitos es modelo para los laicos comprometidos con su fe. Él insistía no sólo en una participación activa en la pastoral de la iglesia, sino también en la liturgia de la Iglesia en una época donde la Misa todavía se consideraba obra exclusiva de los sacerdotes. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. PARISH REGISTRATION

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.

BULLETIN AND MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS

The deadline (strictly observed) for submission of Bulletin and Mass announcements is the previous Monday at noon. Deliver a copy of the bulletin or Mass announcement to the Parish Center or email it to Angela Escobar: angela_escobar4@hotmail.com. To submit a photo to accompany the bulletin text, send a digital file (jpeg or TIF), color or black/white, 300 dpi. See the front cover for the parish mailing address and fax number. For more information please contact Angela Escobar, (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003.
