A Ministry of Comfort, Care, and Healing

Eucharistic Ministers to the Sick are entrusted with the special care of the sick and homebound of our parish community. They take the Eucharist, as well as the community's support and prayers, to parishioners who are unable to be present during liturgies because of hospitalization, illness, injury, or other circumstance. Their visits bring to the homebound comfort in receiving the Body of Christ, the gift of a new friend, and the joy of knowing they are not forgotten.

For more about the Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick, see page 5.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

"Last rites" is a persistent but pesky phrase in the Catholic lexicon, and not a particularly useful phrase since it props open the door to misunderstanding. Many Catholics presume it refers to the anointing of the sick, yet there is nothing "last" about it. Clearly, the Church desires anointing to be celebrated fairly early on in the crisis of illness, and not as a last measure. The Rites for the Dying stand apart in the Church's plan, and include two principal rites. The first is viaticum, Latin for "food for the journey," the reception of Holy Communion by a dying person. Even very active and aware Catholics often do not realize that this "last rite" does not require a priest's presence, but can be conducted by a deacon or minister of Holy Communion.

The second "last rite" in the pastoral plan is a prayer called "Commendation of the Dying." Similarly, this does not require the presence of a priest, but can be led by any minister or family member. Too often, we have focused on what only a priest can do, namely anoint, and have forgotten the fullness of liturgical care that the Church desires for its dying faithful. The "last rites" are completely available to us even when a priest is not. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

BIBLE STUDY

Save the date - Monday February 9, at 7:00pm, in the Religious Education office, we will be studying the "The Passion and Resurrection Narratives of Jesus." This is an ideal study as we enter the season of Lent; it compares the particular insights found in the passion and resurrection accounts of the four Gospels. Examining these events, the core of our faith, will challenge you to incorporate both the pain of the cross and the hope of the resurrection into daily living. This is your invitation to join us in this most interesting study. Scripture study helps us to learn and know more about God's Word; why, where and for who it was written, thereby helping us to understand how it applies in our lives today. Studying the Scriptures leads us to a greater knowledge of Jesus and our faith. You are invited to come and be enlightened. Don't forget to bring your bible. Study materials are available at the meeting.

For more information on Bible Study here at St. Joseph the Worker Church please call Bill Sparks (818) 341-6634 ext. 1012.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

How to Report Inappropriate or Illegal Content on the Internet

One of the main reasons that children do not report the inappropriate content they find online is fear of punishment from parents. If you let them know that it is not their fault if they come across an inappropriate site, they will be more willing to come to you when it happens. If your children ever show you a site that contains illegal behavior, such as pornographic images of children, contact your Internet service provider and the CyberTipline at www.cybertipline.com.

FROM THE FRONT COVER

A MINISTRY OF COMFORT, CARE, AND HEALING

Celebrating the Eucharist is at the very heart of our faith. Some members of our community, however, are unable to be present for our liturgies because of hospitalization, serious illness, injury, or other circumstance. Eucharistic Ministers to the Sick work quietly, diligently, and lovingly to bring our Lord to those who could not otherwise receive communion. A typical visit consists of a Greeting, Penitential Rite, Liturgy of the Word, Intercessions, Liturgy of Holy Communion, Communion, and Prayer after Communion.

In addition to taking communion to the sick in their homes and other locations, ministers visit nearby care facilities. On the first Thursday of month, the ministers assist Fr. Joseph at Mass for the residents at Woodland Care. Every Tuesday Maria Rosel and Cora Sabillo lead the rosary and a short scripture reading with residents there, followed by communion. Waldina Palacios coordinates Mass (Fr Joseph, presider) the third Thursday of the month at Holiday Manor, as well as the weekly visit to Holiday Manor on Sunday mornings, where the ministers share scripture readings, followed by communion.

New Ministers Always Welcome

The Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick welcomes new volunteers. All that is required is your time (varies depending on the need), your compassion, and your willingness to serve our Lord. Training is provided by current ministers.

To learn more about how you can serve, call the Parish Center. The staff will put you in contact with the appropriate ministry leader:

Veronica Rosete, English-speaking Community

Lupe Diaz, Hispanic Community

Hung Vu, Vietnamese Community

Waldina Palacios, Maria Rosel, and Cora Sabillo, care facility Mass and visits

To Arrange a Visit from a Eucharistic Minister

PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

Como Reportar Contenido Inadecuado o Ilegal en el Internet

Una de las razones principales que los niños no divulgan el contenido inadecuado que encuentran en Internet es por miedo al castigo de los padres. Si les deja saber que no es culpa de ellos si atraviesan por un sitio de Internet inapropiado, estarán más dispuestos a venir a usted cuando esto pase. Si sus hijos le muestran un sitio de Internet que contiene materia ilegal, como imágenes pornográficas de niños, póngase en contacto con su proveedor de servicios de Internet y la CyberTipline en www.cybertipline.com.

MINISTERIO DE SANACIÓN

Durante su ministerio, Jesús “curó a muchos enfermos de diversos males y expulsó a muchos demonios”. Así es el caso en el Evangelio de hoy. Jesús cumple la visión del Salmo 147: “Él sana los corazones destrozados y venda sus heridas.” Jesús sabía, sin embargo, que nunca podría sanar todas las enfermedades del mundo. Por mucha gente que curara o muchas horas que dedicara al ministerio, siempre habría más personas afligidas como Job, ansiosos de su toque sanador. Su misión principal no era la de erradicar todo sufrimiento del mundo. Su “obligación” era predicar la venida del Reino de Dios que sana, sí, pero en último caso, trasciende y transforma todo sufrimiento humano. Con Pablo, Jesús pudiera decir, “Ay de mí si no anuncio” esa Buena Nueva. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Los textos sagrados que componen lo que llamamos Biblia fueron coleccionados, organizados y ordenados durante los primeros cuatrocientos años del cristianismo. Fue durante el Concilio de Cartago (Siglo IV), que finalmente se canonizó (estableció el orden) la Biblia católica. Los textos sagrados de la Biblia se han proclamado a lo largo de los siglos en la celebración eucarística para nutrir la fe de los creyentes. En 1969, la Iglesia católica estableció un nuevo Leccionario conteniendo los textos bíblicos que se proclaman en la liturgia. El Leccionario contiene un gran número de textos de la Escritura, organizados de una manera muy especial a fin de que estos textos sean proclamados en las misas dominicales y en las feriales (entre semana). El Leccionario está organizado de tal manera que si una persona asiste a misa diariamente durante un período de tres años, escuchará casi todos los textos de la Biblia. La proclamación de los Evangelios se realiza mediante ciclos dominicales. Durante el Ciclo A, proclamamos el Evangelio de Mateo; el de Marcos durante el ciclo B y el de Lucas durante el ciclo C. El Evangelio de san Juan se proclama durante la Cuaresma y la Pascua. Así mismo, el capítulo 6 de este Evangelio se incorpora al Ciclo B, que es el de Marcos. El resto del Nuevo Testamento se proclama como segunda lectura, excepto durante la Pascua, mientras que la primera lectura se proclama siempre del Antiguo Testamento, excepto durante la Pascua. No olvidemos el Salmo, que es una respuesta a la Escritura. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.

BULLETIN AND MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS

The deadline (strictly observed) for submission of Bulletin and Mass announcements is the previous Monday at noon. Deliver a copy of the bulletin or Mass announcement to the Parish Center or email it to Angela Escobar: angela_escobar4@hotmail.com. To submit a photo to accompany the bulletin text, send a digital file (jpeg or TIF), color or black/white, 300 dpi. See the front cover for the parish mailing address and fax number. For more information please contact Angela Escobar, (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003.
