SEEKING

Easter Sunday is a day all about seeking. The early Christian communities gathered around the Apostles, seeking more about the life and ministry of the Lord Jesus. Saint Paul told the baptized Colossians to “seek what is above.” Mary of Magdala went to the tomb, seeking to find the Lord’s body so that she could anoint it. We come to church on Easter Sunday seeking many things. For some of us, this is a once-a-year journey, when we seek connection with the foundations of the Christian faith. For others, this day is the culmination of a long journey of Lenten repentance. For the newly baptized, this is the first day of a new life filled with promise and expectation. Whatever it is that we seek, let us be inspired by the disciple whom Jesus loved who, when he saw the wrappings of cloth inside the empty tomb, “saw and believed.”

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Our tradition has a way of honoring age-old customs, and is patient with how practices unfold in different places. The name of today’s feast illustrates this well. English is a Germanic language, and our word “Easter,” or German “Oester,” points back to the pagan goddess Eostre, the star of the vernal equinox feast. The Greek title “Pasch” reaches back in a more helpful manner to the Hebrew “Pesach,” or “Passover.” “Paschal Triduum” may be slow to replace “Easter” in our vocabulary, but it is clearer about the mystery we celebrate today, the culmination of three days laden with mystery and meaning.

You can hear the older term, and the resistance to English influence, in the Irish “Casca” and Scottish “Pask.” Romance languages stay close to the deep paschal tradition, with the French “Pâques,” Spanish “Pascua” and Italian “Pasqua.” Memories of our pagan past with “Oester” will not soon fade away: even Japanese Christians are under her spell, for today’s feast is called “I-suta.” Swahili, a young language, takes the more traditional route with “Pasaka.” Each language yields a rich insight into the feast. Spanish includes a sense that today is a “big Sunday” by adding the designation “Pascua” to the greatest feasts, such as “Pascua de la Natividad” (Christmas). Once Christ is risen, every step of life’s journey is illuminated by the light of the Pasch!

2015 SJW WORLD FAIR

Our annual summer fundraising event, rebranded as the “2015 SJW WORLD FAIR”, will be held this year on June 12, 13, and 14. With such a diverse parish and community, the idea of a “World Fair” seems only appropriate.

Financial success of the World Fair is absolutely necessary for the running of our parish. All of the funds raised from the World Fair will be used to support St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church, our school, and our many ministries, allowing us to continue spreading the Gospel.

We invite you, your family, and/or your business to become a sponsor of the SJW World Fair. This is a wonderful opportunity to support the parish and its ministries, as well as promoting your family spirit or your business in the local community.

In the upcoming weeks, a sponsorship contribution form, indicating levels and methods of sponsorship shall be included in our Sunday bulletin. We ask that you review it and donate. Contribution forms will also be made available on our parish website.

PARISH LIFE

RCIA

My Friends in Christ,

Happy Easter to you! At our Vigil Mass last night our Elect became Neophytes, new fully initiated Catholics; they continue as fully participating Catholics. This is only the beginning of their Catholic life; as these are Sacraments of INITIATION - initiation meaning the beginning. It is a great feeling when I see them around the parish or at mass and they tell me they miss the sessions or dismissal sessions. I encourage them to come when they can and continue. But, it means they will have to attend another Mass to receive communion. This is not bad in itself, it is a commitment to being here on a Sunday to listen and share the Word of God. It means giving up something on a Sunday to stay for another mass and to do some community sharing; not always an easy decision for some. They are now able to come to the table and receive communion and after all, that is central to our Catholic way of life. That is why they came here to learn how to live a Catholic life. We come to Mass and participate in the Word of God proclaimed, we celebrate Eucharist and we become the body of Christ, and we are sent out to share that Good News in our world. This is the mission given to us by Jesus Christ, passed down through generations and it is now not only our mission but the mission of our Neophytes. Welcome them to the table of the Eucharist and into full fellowship with us. I encourage you to seek them out; they are the ones in the white gowns; introduce yourself to them, they are a great bunch, also please continue to pray for them. Our newly initiated Catholics are Tammie Bunpalumlert, Jacob Chavez, Alexander Cortez, Iris Cun, Carlos Lazo, Sabrina Le, Alex Mejia, Lina Nguyen, Elvin Ramos, and Hayde Cecelia Jimenez Salinas.

We will welcome our candidates, those already baptized, into the full communion of the Catholic Church during the 11:30a.m. and 1:30p.m. masses on a coming Sunday in Easter. Our candidates are Mayra Archila, Oscar Gonzalez, Sergio Gonzalez, Norma Hamireno, Monica Stephanie Hernandez, and Rudy Rivas.

We continue to have dismissal on Sundays, now with smaller groups. We have Inquires waiting to move to the Order of Catechumens. Soon we will discern with them and prepare to celebrate a Rite of Acceptance and Welcome for some of those Inquirers, and the dismissal groups will grow again. This is the RCIA process and you are a witness. New folks come to us seeking the Sacraments of Initiation; we welcome those that come inquiring and hope anyone that might feel the hunger to become fully initiated, or feel the urge to inquire about becoming Catholic or that simply want to know more about Catholicism will come and see. We also welcome any of you "Good Ole Catholics" to come and share your faith with us and maybe even to join the RCIA team. You can become a sponsor or a dismissal leader and in the process you will learn more about God, Jesus and Church we always need more help.

We meet with adults every Sunday at 11:00 a.m. in the Conference Center in the St. Therese of Lisieux meeting room. This is your invitation to meet with us, share God's Word and our faith. Please see the RCIA schedule in this bulletin. If you have any questions please come to our sessions or call Bill Sparks at the Parish Center, (818) 341-6634 ext.1012.

I wish you all a Happy Easter day and continued good wishes for a happy Easter Season.

VIDA PARROQUIAL

BÚSQUEDA

El Domingo de Pascua es un día para la búsqueda. Las primeras comunidades cristianas se reunían alrededor de los apóstoles para conocer más sobre la vida y el ministerio del Señor Jesús. San Pablo les dijo a los colosenses bautizados que buscaran "las cosas de arriba". María Magdalena fue a la tumba para encontrar el cuerpo del Señor y unirlo. Nosotros vamos a la iglesia el Domingo de Pascua buscando muchas cosas. Para algunos de nosotros, este es un trayecto anual cuando buscamos conectarnos con el fundamento de la fe cristiana. Para otros, este día es la culminación de una larga trayectoria para el arrepentimiento de la Cuaresma. Para los nuevos bautizados es el primer día de una nueva vida llena de promesas y expectativas. No importa lo que sea que busquemos, inspirémonos con la acción del discípulo amado de Jesús quien al ver el sudario dentro de la tumba "vio y creyó".

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

A veces los cristianos preguntamos: ¿qué le pasó a Cristo, durante los tres días de su muerte? La Iglesia de Asia Menor (la actual Turquía) respondió a esto decorando sus templos con murales bizantinos mostrando escenas principales de la vida de Jesús para instruir a los fieles. Una de estas escenas era la de Jesús entre los muertos. Según los evangelios, a la muerte de Jesús muchas tumbas se abrieron y muchos cuerpos de santos resucitaron (Mateo 27:52-53). El símbolo (Credo) de los Apóstoles declara que Jesús descendió a los infiernos. Imágenes antiguas muestran a Jesucristo entrando triunfalmente al infierno, rompiendo las cadenas de los ahí presentes, tomándolos para llevárselos al cielo. El imaginario cristiano normalmente pinta a Jesús con Adán y Eva. Los toma no de las manos sino del pulso, simbolizando que los tiene bien agarrados y nadie, ni el mismo diablo, se los puede quitar. Jesús comparte con todos los difuntos la victoria de su resurrección.

PARISH REGISTRATION

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.
