RENEWAL FOR ALLAn Ecumenical Commemoration of the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation

When Martin Luther nailed the "95 Theses" to the door of the Wittenberg Castle Church on October 31, 1517, no one expected the ensuing decades of religious, political, intellectual, and cultural upheaval that splintered Europe into various churches, sects, and factions. This period of unprecedented change, commonly known as the Reformation, set in place structures and beliefs that would define and painfully divide the continent and much of the rest of the world in the modern era.

It wasn't until the early 1960s, with the work of the Second Vatican Council, that official dialogue began between Catholics and Lutherans. Restoration of unity among all Christians was a principal concern of the Council and set in motion ongoing discussions between Catholics and Lutherans resulting in ground-breaking documents aimed at seeking theological common ground, recognizing that what unites us is far greater than what divides us.

Who was Martin Luther? What happened in Germany five hundred years ago and what did it mean for the Catholic Church? What do Catholics have in common with Lutherans and where do we go from here, so "That all may be one"?

We will explore answers to these fascinating questions and much more at a two-part program here in our parish beginning the First Sunday of Lent.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

Denial as a defense mechanism

It may be difficult to understand why an abuse victim does not come forward immediately to report an assault. For those who have suffered sexual assault or abuse, denial can be a powerful defense mechanism, one that allows them to cope with the trauma and its aftermath. Often, an abuser is someone the victim knows and trusts, which makes it even harder to understand why the abuse is happening, and harder to come forward and ask for help and protection. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article "The Many Faces of Denial, Part 2" email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.

PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

La negación como mecanismo de defensa

Puede ser difícil entender por qué una víctima de abuso no se presenta inmediatamente para reportar un asalto. Para aquellos que han sufrido asalto o abuso sexual, la negación puede ser un poderoso mecanismo de defensa, que les permita hacer frente al trauma y sus secuelas. A menudo, un abusador es alguien que la víctima conoce y en la que confía, lo que hace aún más difícil entender por qué el abuso está sucediendo, y más difícil de presentar y pedir ayuda y protección. Para obtener una copia del artículo de VIRTUS © "The Many Faces of Denial, Part 2" (Las muchas caras de la negación, parte 2), envíe un correo electrónico a bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org o llame al (213) 637-7508.

PARISH REGISTRATION

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.

BULLETIN AND MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS

The deadline (strictly observed) for submission of Bulletin and Mass announcements is the previous Monday at noon. Deliver a copy of the bulletin or Mass announcement to the Parish Center or email it to Angela Escobar: angela_escobar4@hotmail.com.
