PARISH LIFE

TOGETHER IN MISSION

We will have a special Together in Mission collection at all masses the weekend of August 11 and 12. Our goal is $93,625 and we have $56,797.69. Thank you for your generosity.

DOMINICAN SISTERS

Today we welcome the Dominican Sisters who are here to share their mission and ask for your support. In this current time the plan of our mission will be to spread the Good News to pagans of the remote areas in Vietnam whose population makes up 94% of pagans and 70% of the poorest people in Vietnam. We will provide direct care to poor children and young people in these parishes: Thoi Hoa and Loc Quang through providing education, health care and vocational training courses to improve their life. We also teach religious education to catechumens, Children Catechumenate, and prepare catechists to assist in spreading the Good News. Responding to these great needs, we now ask for the support for young sisters in formation in the Dominican Sisters' Mission in Vietnam and other countries. We really need your heart and hands to share with us in this mission.

JESUS IS ASKING ME

Saturday, August 11, is moving day for Christian Morquecho. He will join other first-year students at St. John's Seminary in Camarillo. His journey from altar server, with deep family roots at St. Joseph the Worker, to the seminary is a story he tells with joy and a bit of awe.

"I'm a cradle Catholic," he says. "Growing up, God was always a part of my life. There were moments when I really felt God's presence. In my junior year of high school (Crespi Carmelite), a priest asked me if I had ever considered becoming a priest. I didn't really know what that meant, so I just kept it in the back of my head." Christian revisited these thoughts frequently, especially during his junior year at the University of California, San Diego (UCSD). There he talked to a priest of the San Diego diocese, who, unbeknownst to Christian, just happened to be the Vocations Director of the diocese! Then, at about the same time, he had an unforgettable encounter. "I had this amazing Confession experience," he explains. "As I was trying to say my penance, I was thinking, 'Wow, that was amazing.' I thought to myself, 'I hope other people can experience that. If I can help in any way, I'd be willing to do that. I could be a priest if you want me to, God.' I remember hearing that in my head and thinking, 'What did I just say! Where did that come from?'" After the confession experience, Christian wanted to understand more about the turn his life seemed to be taking. His thoughts turned to questions about God. "Who are you? Why do you want to talk to me so much? Why are you going out of your way to meet me? Why are you so interested?"

While still at UCSD, he attended a series of Saturday learning sessions for discerners, hosted by the San Diego diocese. During spring break he met with priests and others in the Los Angeles Archdiocese about entering the seminary. Although drawn to the priesthood, he decided to stay in school and earn his degree. After graduation, he took a "gap year" to continue discerning. He acknowledges, "I wanted to see how sure I was."

During this time, Christian's spiritual director was very helpful. "He explained to me that once you're in the seminary, you're still discerning. I don't know if I'm called to be a priest," he says, "but I'm called to the seminary. Jesus is asking me. He has been such a great friend in my life, how could I not at least hear him out?"

God calls each of us to our own way of life. Let us pray in a special way for Christian, whom Jesus has called to follow Him.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

Gender divides in childhood can perpetuate abusive behaviors

Parents of young children have likely heard the phrase “boys will be boys” many times — usually to excuse so-called “typical boy” behaviors. But this rationalization can extend dangerously through adulthood, to excuse sexual assault and harassment. The messages received by young children have lasting effects. Boys hear that they need to hide their emotions, so if they are abused, they’re less likely to come forward. Girls hear that boys can be rough or rude, and learn to tolerate rather than push back. Eliminating this gender divide early may help combat sexual abuse and assault. PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

La diferenciación de género en la crianza de los niños-niñas puede perpetuar las conductas abusivas

Los padres de niños pequeños suelen repetir la frase de que “los varones son varones” para justificar ciertas conductas masculinas. Pero este entendimiento podría ser un modelo peligroso para la etapa adulta, ya que esos argumentos podrían justificar el abuso sexual y la violación. Recuerden que los mensajes que les transmitimos a los hijos tienen un efecto duradero. Además, cuando los niños aprenden que los “varones” no deben mostrar sus emociones, esto podría ser peligroso en caso de un abuso sexual, ya que ellos no querrían contar lo sucedido. Y cuando las niñas escuchan que los varones tienen que ser duros y poco corteses, ellas también aprenden que ellos deben ser tolerados en vez de rechazados. Eliminando la diferenciación de género en la crianza de los hijos/hijas podría ayudar a combatir el abuso sexual y las violaciones. Si quiere la copia completa del artículo de VIRTUS sobre el “Entrenando a varones y hembras”, visite <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY

St. Joseph the Worker is a special place, where we are touched daily by God's presence among us. Rooted in the legacy of our founding parishioners, we have become the dynamic faith community we cherish today. A gift to the future of our parish will support its spiritual richness and many good works for generations to come.

Please remember St. Joseph the Worker in your will or trust. To learn more about planned giving opportunities that can benefit St. Joseph the Worker, please contact the Parish Center or Kimberly Jetton, Planned Giving Manager, Archdiocese of Los Angeles; (213) 637-7504; plannedgiving@la-archdiocese.org.

To make a gift: Our correct legal title is: The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Los Angeles, A Corporation Sole, for the benefit of St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church

PARISH REGISTRATION

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.

BULLETIN AND MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS

The deadline (strictly observed) for submission of Bulletin and Mass announcements is the previous Monday at noon. Deliver a copy of the bulletin or Mass announcement to the Parish Center or email it to Angela Escobar: angela_escobar4@hotmail.com. To submit a photo to accompany the bulletin text, send a digital file (jpeg or TIF), color or black/white, 300 dpi. See the front cover for the parish mailing address and fax number. For more information please contact Angela Escobar, (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003.
