Everything Is Connected

During the week of May 16-24, the global Catholic community celebrates the fifth anniversary of Pope Francis's landmark encyclical, Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home. In this document, the Holy Father offers a vision for building a more just and sustainable world. The lessons of the encyclical can provide a path forward as societies emerge from the coronavirus pandemic, which has brought to many parts of the world sickness and death, social and educational challenges, and economic uncertainty. Inspired by the theme "Everything Is Connected," Laudato Si' Week calls us to use the teachings of Pope Francis to guide our actions as we struggle, grow, and transform through this crisis together.
