Mosaic, Church of the Transfiguration, Mount Tabor, Lower Galilee

Today, the Second Sunday
of Lent, we hear the Transfiguration account, from the Gospel of Mark. Jesus took his closest friends up a mountain for an intimate glimpse into who he was, in all his glory. He "led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white . . ." (9:2-3). The passage invites us to climb our own mountains to experience who

God is in our lives. During these times may we encounter moments of grace and feel God's love and presence.
