DIALOGUE

Guercino (Giovanni Francesco Barbieri)
Christ and the Woman of Samaria at the Well
 (1640-1641)
 Thyssen-Bornemisza National Museum, Madrid

Today's Gospel (John 4:5-42; Third Sunday of Lent) is about a noonday encounter between Jesus and a Samaritan woman near an old well where the woman came to draw water. Tired and thirsty, Jesus said to the woman, "Give me a drink." Thus began a dialogue, remarkable in that it happened at all, given the social customs of the day and the animosity between Jews and Samaritans. As Jesus and the woman talked about their thirsts and shared human needs, they began to break down enmity between their peoples, abandon their ingrained stereotypes of the other, and reveal themselves more deeply to each other.
