BIRTH of the Theotokos

Last Friday, September 8, The Church celebrated the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Church has celebrated Mary's birth since at least the sixth century.

Mary is the Theotokos. The word Theotokos derives from two Greek terms—Theos (God) and tiktein (to give birth)—and means the one who gave birth to God. The title has been given to Mary to reflect the teaching of the Church that Jesus was both Divine and human. In English, the title commonly used is simply Mother of God.

PARISH LIFEGOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

What are you supposed to do about the bad behavior of the people around you? You know who I'm talking about. That family member, friend, coworker, or acquaintance who is quite immoral. On this front there are two lively options in our culture: bash the person to others (probably online) or pretend everything's fine. The former damages the person. The latter ignores reality. What to do?

Jesus' strategy in the Gospel of Matthew is as wise as it is difficult: go directly to the person, and then gradually expand the circle of intervention. Simple, often effective, and hard. But what we often miss is the context of the Lord's strategy, "If your brother sins against you..." Notice the italicized words. Is the person in a Christian familial bond with you? And was the action in question against you? If so, proceed with the plan. Fine. But how often we fret over the sins of those who either aren't our spiritual siblings or have done nothing directly to us. This is not an invitation to ignore injustice in the world. Rather, we should build bonds of fraternal love, and carefully discern when and how others' sins are indeed our concern. Sometimes they are. Other times — frequently, perhaps — they simply are not.

— Father John Muir ©LPI

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Love and Truth

I think even the most devout, the most pious Catholic reading this could summon to mind, if asked, one or even two examples of Catholic teaching for which they have desperately looked for a loophole. Don't worry, I won't make you share with the group. But bring it to your mind now: the doctrine you once resented, or perhaps still do. The commandment you don't fully understand, the one you bristle against. The rule you find the hardest to follow. The belief you hate explaining to your friends.

If it disappeared from scripture or dropped out of the catechism, would your life really be easier? Would you be happier?

I am thinking of mine. For a long time, I searched high and low for a way around this particular teaching. I read books and Scripture and tradition, I prayed and reflected and tried to argue with myself. For a time, I gave up complying with it entirely. I threw it to the wind, with a shoulder shrug and a self-satisfied assurance to myself that God, being a loving father, does not want his child to be unhappy.

But reader: I was miserable. I was so, so miserable, and I stayed that way until I finally accepted that God is, indeed, a loving father, and desires nothing less than the unhappiness of his children. And so, to ward it off, he has given us the truth, and asked us to share it amongst ourselves like a cherished heirloom, a priceless inheritance.

To share truth, you must show love. To show love, you must share truth. One demands the other. Because this is what Christ does for us, and this is the mission of the Church in this world. Loosening and binding. Bearing witness. Giving testimony. Speaking truth, and in speaking truth, showing love.

"If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts." — Psalm 95
©LPI

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

Online relationships and abuse

Parents and caregivers need to be aware of the many ways predators can develop online relationships with their victims. Predators often seek out children or teens who share a lot of information about themselves online and use that information to build “friendships” that they can then use to their advantage. They may pretend to share the same interests or insecurities, offer excessive compliments, or claim to have access to desired items, usually drugs or alcohol. To learn more about what to watch out for when your children are online, read the VIR-TUS® article “Online Child Sexual Exploitation” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

Relaciones en línea y abuso

Los padres de familia y cuidadores deben ser conscientes de las muchas formas en que los depredadores pueden desarrollar relaciones en línea con sus víctimas. Los depredadores a menudo buscan niños o adolescentes que comparten mucha información sobre sí mismos en línea y usan esa información para hacer "amistades" que luego pueden usar para su propio beneficio. Pueden pretender compartir los mismos intereses o inseguridades, dar cumplidos excesivos o afirmar tener acceso a artículos deseados, generalmente drogas o alcohol. Para obtener más información sobre lo que debe tener en cuenta cuando sus hijos están en línea, lea el artículo en inglés de VIRTUS® "Online Child Sexual Exploitation" (Explotación sexual infantil en línea) en lacatholic.org/did-you-know/.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Creo que la pandemia nos dejó una enseñanza muy grande y fue rezar juntos en familia y el deseo de Dios es que sigamos unidos en oración. Familia, comunidad y sociedad, lo necesitamos urgentemente. Pedir unidos por la paz, por que termine la violencia en las calles, es deber de cristianos. Darnos la mano unos a otros es compromiso para enfrentar las situaciones difíciles. ¿Qué tipo de situaciones existen ahora que debemos orar juntos? ¿Crees que eres responsable de pedir por tu familia? También, debemos dar testimonio; recordemos el refrán que dice: "Las palabras mueven, pero el ejemplo arrastra". El Evangelio también habla de la corrección fraterna, la cual se debe de hacer con prudencia, respeto y caridad, sin humillar al que se corrige. La catequesis del Papa Francisco a este respecto es muy específica y llena de enseñanza: "Para corregir al hermano que se ha equivocado, Jesús, sugiere una pedagogía de recuperación. Y siempre la pedagogía de Jesús es pedagogía de la recuperación; Él siempre busca recuperar, salvar" (09/06/2020). En resumen, es importante corregir con amor y estar abiertos también a que se nos corrija. Ponernos de acuerdo para pedir lo que nos conviene. Porque, Jesús asegura lo siguiente: "Pues donde están dos o tres reunidos en mi Nombre, allí estoy yo, en medio de ellos" (Mateo 18:20). Llamado para orar juntos y para participar en la Eucaristía dominical con entusiasmo. ¡Genial, Dios nos escucha y acompaña siempre!

WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY

St. Joseph the Worker is a special place, where we are touched daily by God's presence among us. Rooted in the legacy of our founding parishioners, we have become the dynamic faith community we cherish today. A gift to the future of our parish will support its spiritual richness and many good works for generations to come.

Please remember St. Joseph the Worker in your will or trust. To learn more about planned giving opportunities that can benefit St. Joseph the Worker, please contact the Parish Center or Kimberly Jetton, Planned Giving Manager, Archdiocese of Los Angeles; (213) 637-7504; plannedgiving@la-archdiocese.org.

To make a gift: Our correct legal title is: The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Los Angeles, A Corporation Sole, for the benefit of St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church

PARISH REGISTRATION

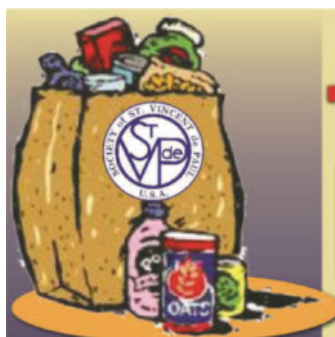

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.

BULLETIN AND MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS

The deadline (strictly observed) for submission of Bulletin and Mass announcements is the previous Monday at noon. Deliver a copy of the bulletin or Mass announcement to the Parish Center or email it to Angela Escobar: angela_escobar4@hotmail.com. To submit a photo to accompany the bulletin text, send a digital file (jpeg or TIF), color or black/white, 300 dpi. See the front cover for the parish mailing address and fax number. For more information please contact Angela Escobar, (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003.
