Solemnity of Corpus Christi

Originated in France in the mid-thirteenth century and extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ focuses our attention on the Eucharist, something we celebrate at every Mass. The Solemnity, which takes place on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, is celebrated the following Sunday in the United States.

The Feast is commonly used as an opportunity for public faith and adoration, with Eucharistic processions in which the consecrated host is carried by the clergy, displayed in a monstrance under a canopy, accompanied by prayers and singing in honor of the Blessed Sacrament.

PARISH LIFE

ARCHDIOCESAN COLLECTION PRIEST RETIREMENT FUND

Next weekend all parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Los Angeles will be asked to give generously to support the Retirement Fund for Archdiocesan Priests. Currently, the fund provides for more than 100 priests who are retired. Over the next ten years, that number is expected to increase significantly. With minimal compensation, and in many cases, no pension, these men often retire with nothing to fall back upon. Your contributions can change that. The Priest Retirement Fund offers us a way to give back to our Catholic priests who have served us so faithfully. Your contribution will help archdiocesan priests live modestly and peacefully in retirement. Help us offer thanks for their years of devotion to God, and faithful service to our parish communities.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

June 2, 2024

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

The best way to understand the Eucharist is to recall God's long, careful teaching process beginning in the Old Testament. This week in Exodus 24, we learn the basic pattern. Moses reads the dictates of God's law to the people, who profess their allegiance to it. Then Moses takes representatives of Israel's twelve tribes and splashes the sacrificed blood of animals in two directions: on the altar and on the people. It's clear and serious business: clear, because the participants are entering a blood-bond with God Himself; serious, because the dead animals symbolize the life-and-death stakes at play.

Many centuries later, God uses the experience at Sinai to teach us something new. At the Last Supper, like a new Moses, Jesus proposes to "pour out" blood as a new covenant. It will land on the altar of the cross and the lips of his disciples. They have promised to be obedient to him who is God's law in flesh. This renews and elevates the breathtaking romance God wants with His people, unfolding from Sinai to this Supper. The Body and Blood of Christ is the sacrificial action whereby this covenant is strengthened.

How hopeful that, like us, the Israelites and the apostles repeatedly fail to live up to their promises and discover that the blood of the covenant continually renews and refreshes them. Today the blood of Christ faithfully flows, to unite and renew, moving us forward toward where our great teacher is taking us. This week, we should say a renewed "amen" to God who so carefully teaches us how to be one with Him in this new covenant.

— Father John Muir

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

How modeling behaviors can help prevent abuse

Adults have a responsibility to provide the young people in their care with examples of responsible adult behavior. Small behaviors like following the rules, listening to the children in your life, wearing your seatbelt, looking both ways before crossing the street – these all teach children that you are a trusted adult and that you can be counted on to do the right thing. For more small things that make a big difference in the life of a child, read the VIR-TUS® article “Modeling Healthy Behaviors” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

PARISH LIFE

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

This Is My Body

A friend in high school once asked me why I wore a Crucifix around my neck. She was a Christian and very devout, so I was surprised at her confusion. "To remember Jesus' sacrifice," I said.

Her upper lip curled in disgust. "The cross is a sign of Jesus' sacrifice," she said. "He's not on the cross anymore. It's really weird that you wear his dead body."

As someone raised Catholic, the Corpus was an image I knew intimately. We had Crucifixes all over our home, everyone in my family did. And for reasons I couldn't quite explain, I actually preferred them over the plain crosses I saw elsewhere. The crosses seemed more elegant, more refined — but the Crucifixes felt more complete. More to-the-point.

My friend's disgust compelled me to reflect, in a way I never had before, on the image of Christ's body, wounded and twisted and tortured. Why was this a visual that compelled me? It didn't make a lot of sense for someone who abhorred dead bodies so much that I found it difficult to look into a casket at a wake. So, what was different about this?

My friend wasn't wrong: Christ is no longer on the cross. The sacrifice has been made. But does that mean it is over? We re-present it every single Mass. It's the point of everything that we do. Jesus did not sacrifice his spirit; he sacrificed his body. He bought us with every tear of the flesh, with every drop of blood.

The cross is crucial, yes. But that wood didn't bleed for us. If the body wasn't the point, Jesus would not have become human at all. Jesus needed the body.

We need it, too.

"While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is my body.' — Matthew 26:26

PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS

Cómo modelar comportamientos puede ayudar a prevenir el abuso

Los adultos tienen la responsabilidad de dar ejemplos de comportamientos de un adulto responsable a los jóvenes bajo su cuidado. Comportamientos como seguir las reglas, escuchar a los niños en su vida, usar el cinturón de seguridad en el automóvil, mirar a ambos lados antes de cruzar la calle, todos enseñan a los niños que usted es un adulto de confianza y que se puede contar con usted para hacer lo correcto. Para aprender más sobre cosas pequeñas que marcan una gran diferencia en la vida de un niño, lea el artículo en inglés de VIR-TUS® "Modeling Healthy Behaviors" (Modelando comportamientos saludables) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

2 de junio de 2024

El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo

En el año 304, durante el reinado del emperador Diocleciano, en Abitinia, África, hubo un grupo de 49 mártires cristianos declarados culpables por haber celebrado la Eucaristía: "No podemos ser cristianos sin la Eucaristía". Cuando leí sobre estos santos mártires, me sorprendí acerca de su entusiasmo y valor para responder sobre el amor a la Eucaristía. Ellos prefirieron el sacrificio de la muerte antes que renunciar al amor de Jesús en la Eucaristía. ¿Qué pensamos ahora de ellos? ¿Cuánto amor y respeto tengo por la Eucaristía? ¿Soy capaz de morir si me prohibieran asistir a Misa?

Creo que necesitamos muchas catequesis sobre no ser indiferentes ante Jesús Eucaristía. Seamos conscientes de lo que el Papa Francisco nos pide valorar: "En la Eucaristía contemplamos y adoramos al Dios del amor. Es el Señor, que no quebranta a nadie, sino que se parte a sí mismo. Es el Señor, que no exige sacrificios, sino que se sacrifica él mismo. Es el Señor, que no pide nada, sino que entrega todo. Para celebrar y vivir la Eucaristía, también, nosotros estamos llamados a vivir este amor. Porque no puedes partir el Pan del domingo si tu corazón está cerrado a los hermanos. No puedes comer de este Pan si no compartes los sufrimientos del que está pasando necesidad". (06-06-2021). El mensaje del Papa Francisco es claro y conciso, no podemos comer de ese Pan si no nos convertimos en pan partido a los demás.

WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY

St. Joseph the Worker is a special place, where we are touched daily by God's presence among us. Rooted in the legacy of our founding parishioners, we have become the dynamic faith community we cherish today. A gift to the future of our parish will support its spiritual richness and many good works for generations to come.

Please remember St. Joseph the Worker in your will or trust. To learn more about planned giving opportunities that can benefit St. Joseph the Worker, please contact the Parish Center or Kimberly Jetton, Planned Giving Manager, Archdiocese of Los Angeles; (213) 637-7504; plannedgiving@la-archdiocese.org.

To make a gift: Our correct legal title is: The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Los Angeles, A Corporation Sole, for the benefit of St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church

PARISH REGISTRATION

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.

BULLETIN AND MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS

The deadline (strictly observed) for submission of Bulletin and Mass announcements is the previous Monday at noon. Deliver a copy of the bulletin or Mass announcement to the Parish Center or email it to Angela Escobar: angela_escobar4@hotmail.com. To submit a photo to accompany the bulletin text, send a digital file (jpeg or TIF), color or black/white, 300 dpi. See the front cover for the parish mailing address and fax number. For more information please contact Angela Escobar, (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003.
