CASTING STONES
"Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."
(Jn 8:7)

With these words Jesus spoke to the scribes and the Pharisees who kept asking what he would say to a woman caught in the act of committing adultery. Rather than condemnation, Jesus shows love and forgiveness for the sinner and he adds, "I do not condemn you. Go and on do not sin anymore."

What's important to God is repentance and the intent to stay away from sinning.

PARISH LIFE

OCIA NEWS

Today we completed the Scrutinies with the Third Scrutiny at the 10:30am mass. Now, raised up by our example and prayers, our Elect are ready. Ready to complete their journey to the Easter Vigil and the Sacraments of Initiation. The three gospel readings for the passed three Sundays are very important in the OCIA process and in the Church. They bring the message of conversion; to change life. The woman at the well becomes a disciple who brings the living water of the good news of Jesus Christ to the town. The man born blind is born, his blindness is a metaphor for original sin and then, in the waters of Siloam it is washed away. Because of his newfound vision, his belief, he becomes a disciple of Christ. Christ who orders the stone removed, brings Lazarus to life and then orders them to untie him and set him free; resurrection and new life. All who witnessed this miracle; their lives are changed and they are freed. This is a time to focus on God's love, mercy and forgiveness, not on our sinfulness. As we reflect on these Scriptures let us look for changes within ourselves. Where do we have to change for the living water to flow up within, to have new vision, to bring resurrection and new life into our life? Our focus is on the freedom of being called a child of God, and anything that keeps us from living that vocation to its fullest. Who do I have to go to for forgiveness? Whom do I have to forgive? How can I be a good steward of forgiveness? Holy Week begins next Sunday; it is Palm Sunday. We celebrate Jesus' triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. Palms are laid before him and the people celebrate. On Palm Sunday we take palms and go in procession into the church, celebrating and singing. The gospel reading is the Passion of Christ, and so Holy Week begins.

On Palm Sunday will begin at the gazebo. Palms will be distributed to all. The palms will be blessed and we will process along the path next to the church and enter the sanctuary through the Sherman Way doors. The bigger the crowd the better the celebration. The Gospel will be up on the on the screens in the church. Pay attention to the screens, follow along as the Gospel is dramatize and proclaimed by our able lectors and the presider. There are parts for you, the people gathered, to read aloud. We do not often get to participate in proclaiming the Gospel, please participate; add your voice to this proclamation with vigor, do not be afraid, let it be heard!

Please pray for our Elect and Candidates.

WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY

St. Joseph the Worker is a special place, where we are touched daily by God's presence among us. Rooted in the legacy of our founding parishioners, we have become the dynamic faith community we cherish today. A gift to the future of our parish will support its spiritual richness and many good works for generations to come.

Please remember St. Joseph the Worker in your will or trust. To learn more about planned giving opportunities that can benefit St. Joseph the Worker, please contact the Parish Center or Karen Dundee, Planned Giving Manager, Archdiocese of Los Angeles; (213) 637-7510; plannedgiving@la-archdiocese.org.

To make a gift: Our correct legal title is: The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Los Angeles, A Corporation Sole, for the benefit of St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church

PARISH REGISTRATION

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Having registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner. Please call or visit the Parish Center to request a registration form or complete the form online at the parish website: www.sjwchurch.com. Also, please contact the Parish Center if you have a new address or phone number. The staff is able to serve you better if the parish records are accurate.

REQUESTING USE OF PARISH FACILITIES

Parish and School groups that would like to reserve any facility in the parish must contact Angela Escobar in the Parish Center (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003. Only rooms reserved in advance are open. If your group needs to cancel a reservation, please let Angela know so that the room can be made available to another group. Also, if your group needs a particular room arrangement, please bring a copy of the requested floor plan to the Parish Center a week ahead.

BULLETIN AND MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS

The deadline (strictly observed) for submission of Bulletin and Mass announcements is the previous Monday at noon. Deliver a copy of the bulletin or Mass announcement to the Parish Center or email it to Angela Escobar: angela_escobar4@hotmail.com. To submit a photo to accompany the bulletin text, send a digital file (jpeg or TIF), color or black/white, 300 dpi. See the front cover for the parish mailing address and fax number. For more information please contact Angela Escobar, (818) 341-6634, ext. 1003.
