God calls each one of us to receive that same witnessing power of his Spirit of Love; to have that personal and intimate experience of His "divine hug"; the intimate embrace of the love of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

It is a call to a personal Pentecost; a call for repentance, spiritual renewal and a total commitment to Jesus Christ as our personal Lord and Savior; a call to be spirit-filled Christians and "effective witnesses" in the service of God's people.

(Fr. John Hampsch, CMF)

The gift of the Spirit fills our whole life and changes us so that we begin to know and experience God's love and the abundant life Jesus spoke of . . .

"I came that they might have life and have it to the full."

(John 10:10)
