

We Are the Body of Christ

Corpus Christi 2015

Corpus Christi is the time when St. Joseph the Worker celebrates the great gift of the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist.
We do this with the traditional procession of the Blessed Sacrament through the streets.

On Saturday, June 6, 2015, following 5:30 p.m. Mass, we processed through our Winnetka neighborhood, a magnificent testimony to our faith and a sign to the world that we are the Body of Christ.

In our rich diversity, in our many cultures, in our various languages, we allow Him to live in us and through us. Gathered around the Eucharistic table, we celebrate this great mystery and make Him present.

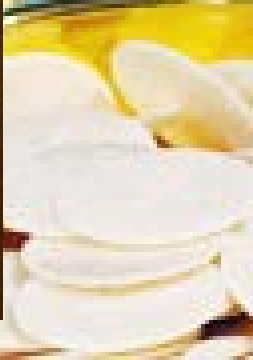

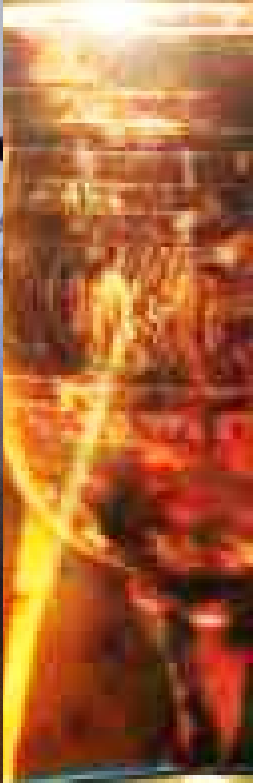

The procession concluded in the parish hall with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and singing of “Tantum Ergo,” from the Eucharistic hymn Pange Lingua, composed by St. Thomas Aquinas for the Feast of Corpus Christi.

After the Blessed Sacrament was retired, all enjoyed a potluck buffet dinner and an evening of fellowship.

Photography

Michael Amadio

Ron Pauckert

Colleen Trujillo

Music

Tantum Ergo by Portuguese composer

Pedro Antonio Avondano (1714-1782)

performed by

Voces Caelestes chamber choir with baroque orchestra.

Non-edited live recording.

