

Celebration of Tết Vietnamese New Year

SUNDAY, January 26, 2020

Lunar New Year Commemoration

Each year our parish commemorates the Lunar New Year. According to the lunar calendar, 2020 is the “Year of the Rat.” People in America of Chinese, Mongolian, and Vietnamese descent celebrate this holiday with festivals, firecrackers, family gatherings, and parades of all kinds. Called Tết in Vietnamese, it is a month-long celebration of prosperity, spring, rebirth, and familial ancestry.

New Year's Mass

Reception and Entertainment

Conference Center Hall

PHOTOGRAPHY: Brandon Phan

PRODUCTION: SJW Web Team